

Denise Walsh to Speak at NJSBA Program on Ethics for Transactional Attorneys

On Thursday, November 16, 2017, Denise Walsh will participate in a panel discussion at the New Jersey State Bar Association's CLE program entitled "Ethics for Transactional Attorneys." Denise will be joined by Moderator Gianfranco Pietrafesa of Archer & Grenier, and Panelists Andrew Cevasco of Archer & Grenier, and Philip McGovern of Connell Foley.

About the Program

This popular annual seminar brings together top New Jersey attorneys to provide you with a virtual roadmap to deal with legal ethics issues in many different "transactional" practice areas. This year's program will include presentations on ethical issues in corporate law, contract drafting and negotiation, real estate law, and trust and estate law. Don't take any chances in your practice - register today to learn what you need to know to avoid costly issues in the future!

Who Should Attend:

- Real Estate Attorneys
- General Practitioners
- Tax & Estate Attorneys
- Corporate & Business Attorneys

CLE Credits:

This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 4.2 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 4.2 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.
