

Saiber Welcomes Sophia Breene to its Labor & Employment Law and Business Litigation Practice Groups

January 22, 2025

Saiber LLC is pleased to announce the addition of Sophia Breene as an associate in the Firm's Labor & Employment Law and Business Litigation Practice Groups.

Sophia has over five years' experience litigating and counseling clients in all areas of employment law, including sexual harassment; discrimination; whistleblowing; wage and hour; and breach of contract claims. Prior to joining Saiber, Sophia was an employment law and commercial litigation associate at a regional law firm in Boston, Massachusetts. Before entering private practice, Sophia was a public defender in New Hampshire, where she represented juveniles and adults facing misdemeanor and serious felony criminal offenses.

Sophia earned her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center in 2019 (cum laude), and her B.A. from Hamilton College, where she was a coxswain on the Varsity Women's Crew team.
